

WISGOP Daily Update

-- Get ready to hold your nose, Wisconsin. Julie Lassa's campaign began trashing the airwaves with its first TV attack ad today. And it kicked off with a whopper. Julie Lassa's campaign has relentlessly pushed a flat-out lie: that Sean Duffy wants to privatize Social Security. "Julie Lassa has made it clear that she will say and do anything to win this race, and she has no intention of allowing the truth to get in the way." said Mark Jefferson, Executive director of the Republican Party of Wisconsin. -- As President Obama speaks tonight on Iraq, it's worth remembering Sen. Russ Feingold's record. If Feingold had his way, we would not be where we are today. Reince Priebus issued a statement this evening reminding Wisconsinites that our mission in Iraq is where it is because of the brave men and women of our armed forces, and to them we owe an eternal debt of gratitude. But this also speaks to why Wisconsin needs a change in its leadership in the U.S. Senate. Sen. Feingold has consistently opposed our efforts in Iraq, from voting against critical funding to opposing and voting against the Surge strategy that ultimately turned the tide.
